EAST HARTFORD - The Connecticut Technology Council (CTC) has presented its 2007 Innovation Excellence Award to Open Solutions Inc. The Glastonbury software company was cited for its impressive record of growth and job creation over the last several years to become one of the top three software companies in the state, with more than 300 employees in Connecticut and 2,100 overall. Revenue for calendar 2006 was just under $500 million.

In its fourth year, the Innovation Excellence Award is given to the CTC member which has displayed technology leadership in its industry vertical, grown market share, and been recognized for innovation by its peer or trade groups and industry analysts. Previous year winners have been ATMI Inc. of Danbury, Pitney Bowes of Stamford and Sonalysts. Inc. of Waterford.

Open Solutions is headed by Louis Hernandez Jr., its chairman and CEO, who has presided over its rapid growth, its IPO in 2003 and its return to a privately held company in 2007 with its sale to the Carlyle Group and Providence Equity Partners.
