Fastest Growing Tech Companies in CT Sought

Are you a fast growing tech company in Connecticut? Then here's an awards contest for you.

The Connecticut Technology Council (CTC) has created the Tech Top 40. It's an awards program, created with the help of UHY LLP, an accounting firm, that will honor the 40 fastest growing technology companies in Connecticut. The Council will spotlight companies in six technology verticals that reflect the companies will be judged based on four years of progress and must meet certain minimum requirements.

"As an entrepreneur, I know the value this recognition can have for any company," said CTC Chairman, David Reisner, CEO of the Nano Group. The Council will spotlight companies in six technology verticals that reflect the Connecticut technology community.

The winners will be honored on Nov. 6 at the Chevrolet Theater in Wallingford. To apply, click here. Applications will be accepted through August 31.
