THE CONNECTICUT TECHNOLOGY COUNCIL NAMES
2009 EMERGING CONNECTICUT TECHNOLOGY COMPANIES TO WATCH
SEPTEMBER 17, 2009, NEW HAVEN

EAST HARTFORD, Conn. — Over 300 entrepreneurs, event sponsors and service providers are expected to gather on Thursday, September 17, 2009 at The Omni Hotel in New Haven for the Third Innovation Pipeline Awards, a celebration of the most promising early stage technology companies in Connecticut and are considered to have the best potential to be a successful enterprise.

This event is part of a larger event being held that day called the Cantor Colburn/CCAT Innovation and Entrepreneurship Summit and includes a northeast angel investor summit sponsored by The Angel Investor Forum (www.angelinvestorforum.com/). The September 17th event will honor emerging technology companies, with the highlight of the evening's program being the poster fair where the 119 "Companies to Watch" will present their products and services to attendees.

The keynote speech will be presented by Jeffrey Sohl, Director of the Center for Venture Research and Professor of Entrepreneurship and Decision Sciences at the Whittemore School of Business and Economics at the University of New Hampshire.

The awards event and the Innovation Pipeline program are sponsored by the Connecticut Center for Advanced Technology, Cantor Colburn LLC, Connecticut Innovations, CNA Insurance, the Economic Development Corporation of New Haven, Edwards Angell Palmer and Dodge LLC, Fiondella Milone & LaSaracina, Microsoft Corporation, Open Solutions Inc. and Wellstone Insurance.

The 2009 Innovation Pipeline Awards to be presented are:

1. The Most New Patent(s)
2. The Most Significant Early Stage Capital Investment
3. The Deal of the Year
4. The Most Promising Technology Product or Service of the Year
5. The Most Promising Software Product of the Year
6. The Most Promising New Internet/New Media Company of the Year
7. The Most Promising New Medical Device Product of the Year.
8. The Most Promising New Green Tech Industries Company of the Year

ABOUT CCAT

The Connecticut Center for Advanced Technology, Inc. (www.ccat.us) is a non-stock, tax exempt corporation that provides services and resources to entrepreneurs and businesses, and through collaboration with industry, academia, and government, helps companies innovate and compete, thereby strengthening our nation in the global market.

About CTC

Founded in 1994, the Connecticut Technology Council (www.ctc.org) is a 501 c 6 business association that speaks for 2,500 firms in the state ranging from large multi-nationals to hundreds of early stage start-ups. The Council presents over 40 events a year for thousands of attendees, featuring and recognizing firms for business growth, innovation potential and women in technology leadership. CTC is an advocate for the role of innovation, tech transfer and early stage capital in Connecticut. Led by a 42-person board, the Council is chaired by Chris Kalish, executive Director of the GE Edgelab at UCONN-Stamford.
